Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2006:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling of designated electronically stored information, books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to producing any or all of the designated materials or inspection of the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production, inspection, copying, testing, or sampling. Such an order to compel shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection, copying, testing, or sampling commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) (A) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(B) If a subpoena does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, a person responding to a subpoena must produce the information in a form or forms in which the person ordinarily maintains it or in a form or forms that are reasonably usable.

(C) A person responding to a subpoena need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) A person responding to a subpoena need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or to quash, the person from whom discovery is sought must show that the information sought is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) (A) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(B) If information is produced in response to a subpoena that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved. A receiving party may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. If the receiving party disclosed the information before being notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT. Failure of any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued. An adequate excuse for failure to obey exists when a subpoena purports to require a nonparty to attend or produce at a place not within the limits provided by clause (ii) of subparagraph (c)(3)(A).

3. "Communication" means any transmission of information from one person to another, including, without limitation, by personal meeting, telephone, facsimile, and electronic mail.
4. The term "document" or "documents" is used in its customarily broad sense within the context of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and includes all documents as defined in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 and, without limitation, each original, or a copy or microfilm in the absence of the original, and every copy bearing notes or markings not present on the original or copy, letters, memoranda, drafts, notes, notebooks, translations, data compilations, reports, e-mails, computer disks, publications, computer printouts, charts, photographs, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary, by Oracle through detection devices into a reasonably usable form. The term "document" or "documents" also refers to any tangible object such as, but not limited to, prototypes, models and specimens.

5. “epicRealm,” means epicRealm Licensing, LP, defendant and counterclaimant in this action, and all predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, parents and affiliates thereof, past or present, including but not limited to InfoSpinner, Inc. and Parallel Networks, LLC, and all past or present officers, directors, partners, affiliates, agents, employees, attorneys, consultants, representatives and any other person acting, or purporting to act on behalf of epicRealm.

6. “The epicRealm patents” refers to the ’554 and ’335 patents.

7. “Oracle” means Oracle, plaintiff and counterdefendant in this action, and all predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, parents and affiliates thereof, past or present, and all past or present officers, directors, affiliates, agents, employees, attorneys, consultants, representatives and any other person acting or purporting to act on behalf of Oracle.

8. “Person” means any natural person, corporation, proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, association, firm or entity recognized in law, and shall include the owners, officers, directors, agents, trustees, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, assigns, predecessors and successors of such “person.”

9. “Texas actions” mean Civil Action No. 2:05-CV-163 (E.D. Tex. filed May 2, 2005), Civil Action No. 2:05-CV-356 (E.D. Tex. filed August 5, 2005) and Civil Action No. 2:07-CV-562-LED (E.D. Tex. filed December 28, 2007).

INSTRUCTIONS

1. These instructions shall be deemed to seek production of documents and things to the full extent of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
2. Where an identified document has been destroyed or is alleged to have been destroyed, state the reasons for its destruction, the names of the persons having any knowledge of its destruction, and the names of the persons responsible for its destruction.
3. Where an identified document is not in your possession, custody or control, state the names of the persons who have possession, custody or control of that document. If a document was in your possession, custody or control in the past but is no longer in your possession, custody or control, state what disposition was made of the document, the reasons for such disposition, identify any persons having any knowledge of such disposition, and identify the persons responsible for such disposition.
4. If you object to any part of a request and refuse to produce documents responsive to that part, state your objection and answer the remaining portion of that document request. If you object to the scope or time period of a document request and refuse to answer for that scope or time period, state your objections and produce responsive documents for the scope or time period you believe is appropriate (including in your response a specific statement as to why you believe the scope or time period is inappropriate).
5. Unless otherwise specified, supply all annual data requested on a calendar-year basis; if any basis other than a calendar-year basis is used, such as to accommodate a fiscal-year basis, state as part of the response the nature and type of the basis so used.
6. If any of the following requests cannot be answered in full after exercising due diligence to secure the information, please so state and answer to the extent possible, specifying your inability to answer the remainder and stating whatever information you have concerning the unanswered portions. If your answer is qualified in any particular, set forth the details of such qualification.

7. You are to produce entire documents, including attachments, enclosures, cover letters memoranda and appendices.

8. If any information called for by a request is withheld on the basis of a claim of privilege, set forth the nature of the claim of privilege and the nature of the information for which privilege is claimed. Where the claimed privileged subject matter forms only part of the entire document involved, indicate that this is the case and whether you will produce the document with the privileged portions redacted, blocked out, or obliterated in a copy thereof.

9. Any document called for under these requests but not produced on the basis of a claim of privilege should be identified by the name of the people who prepared the document, the name of all recipients (including copy recipients), the date of the document, the nature of the document (e.g., e-mail, letter, etc.), and the general nature of the subject matter for which a privilege is claimed. All such documents shall be listed on a privilege log and the log shall be supplied at a time and place to be agreed upon by counsel.

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2006:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling of designated electronically stored information, books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to producing any or all of the designated materials or inspection of the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production, inspection, copying, testing, or sampling. Such an order to compel shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection, copying, testing, or sampling commanded.

6. If any of the following requests cannot be answered in full after exercising due diligence to secure the information, please so state and answer to the extent possible, specifying your inability to answer the remainder and stating whatever information you have concerning the unanswered portions. If your answer is qualified in any particular, set forth the details of such qualification.

7. You are to produce entire documents, including attachments, enclosures, cover letters memoranda and appendices.

8. If any information called for by a request is withheld on the basis of a claim of privilege, set forth the nature of the claim of privilege and the nature of the information for which privilege is claimed. Where the claimed privileged subject matter forms only part of the entire document involved, indicate that this is the case and whether you will produce the document with the privileged portions redacted, blocked out, or obliterated in a copy thereof.

9. Any document called for under these requests but not produced on the basis of a claim of privilege should be identified by the name of the people who prepared the document, the name of all recipients (including copy recipients), the date of the document, the nature of the document (e.g., e-mail, letter, etc.), and the general nature of the subject matter for which a privilege is claimed. All such documents shall be listed on a privilege log and the log shall be supplied at a time and place to be agreed upon by counsel.

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2006:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling of designated electronically stored information, books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to producing any or all of the designated materials or inspection of the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production, inspection, copying, testing, or sampling. Such an order to compel shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection, copying, testing, or sampling commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (e)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) (A) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(B) If a subpoena does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, a person responding to a subpoena must produce the information in a form or forms in which the person ordinarily maintains it or in a form or forms that are reasonably usable.

(C) A person responding to a subpoena need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) A person responding to a subpoena need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or to quash, the person from whom discovery is sought must show that the information sought is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) (A) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(B) If information is produced in response to a subpoena that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved. A receiving party may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. If the receiving party disclosed the information before being notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT Failure of any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued. An adequate cause for failure to obey exists when a subpoena purports to require a nonparty to attend or produce at a place not within the limits provided by clause (ii) of subparagraph (c)(3)(A).

DEFINITIONS

1. "The '335 patent" refers to U.S. Patent No. 6,415,335, entitled "SYSTEM AND METHOD FOR MANAGING DYNAMIC WEB PAGE GENERATION REQUESTS" together with any divisionals and counterparts thereof, the applications from which the patents issued, and all related U.S. and foreign applications.
2. "The '554 patent" refers to U.S. Patent No. 5,894,554, entitled "SYSTEM FOR MANAGING DYNAMIC WEB PAGE GENERATION REQUESTS BY INTERCEPTING REQUEST AT WEB SERVER AND ROUTING TO PAGE SERVER THEREBY RELEASING WEB SERVER TO PROCESS OTHER REQUESTS" together with any divisionals and counterparts thereof, the applications from which the patents issued, and all related U.S. and foreign applications.
3. "The '673 patent" refers to U.S. Patent No. 5,791,673, entitled "METHOD AND APPARATUS FOR GENERATING DYNAMIC WEB PAGES BY INVOKING A PREDEFINED PROCEDURAL PACKAGE STORED IN A DATABASE" together with any divisionals and counterparts thereof, the applications from which the patents issued, and all related U.S. and foreign applications.
4. "Communication" means any transmission of information from one person to another, including, without limitation, by personal meeting, telephone, facsimile, and electronic mail.
5. The term "document" or "documents" is used in its customarily broad sense within the context of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and includes all documents as defined in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 and, without limitation, each original, or a copy or microfilm in the absence of the original, and every copy bearing notes or markings not present on the original or copy, letters, memoranda, drafts, notes, notebooks, translations, data compilations, reports, e-mails, computer disks, publications, computer printouts, charts, photographs, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary, by Oracle through detection devices into a reasonably usable form. The term “document” or “documents” also refers to any tangible object such as, but not limited to, prototypes, models and specimens.

6. “epicRealm,” means epicRealm Licensing, LP, defendant and counterclaimant in this action, and all predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, parents and affiliates thereof, past or present, including but not limited to InfoSpinner, Inc. and Parallel Networks, LLC, and all past or present officers, directors, partners, affiliates, agents, employees, attorneys, consultants, representatives and any other person acting or purporting to act on behalf of epicRealm.

7. “The epicRealm patents” refers to the ’554 and ’335 patents.

8. “Oracle” means Oracle, plaintiff and counterdefendant in this action, and all predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, parents and affiliates thereof, past or present, and all past or present officers, directors, affiliates, agents, employees, attorneys, consultants, representatives and any other person acting or purporting to act on behalf of Oracle.

9. “Person” means any natural person, corporation, proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, association, firm or entity recognized in law, and shall include the owners, officers, directors, agents, trustees, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, assigns, predecessors and successors of such “person.”

10. “Texas actions” mean Civil Action No. 2:05-CV-163 (E.D. Tex. filed May 2, 2005), Civil Action No. 2:05-CV-356 (E.D. Tex. filed August 5, 2005) and Civil Action No. 2:07-CV-562-LED (E.D. Tex. filed December 28, 2007).

INSTRUCTIONS

1. These instructions shall be deemed to seek production of documents and things to the full extent of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
2. Where an identified document has been destroyed or is alleged to have been destroyed, state the reasons for its destruction, the names of the persons having any knowledge of its destruction, and the names of the persons responsible for its destruction.
3. Where an identified document is not in your possession, custody or control, state the names of the persons who have possession, custody or control of that document. If a document was in your possession, custody or control in the past but is no longer in your possession, custody or control, state what disposition was made of the document, the reasons for such disposition, identify any persons having any knowledge of such disposition, and identify the persons responsible for such disposition.
4. If you object to any part of a request and refuse to produce documents responsive to that part, state your objection and answer the remaining portion of that document request. If you object to the scope or time period of a document request and refuse to answer for that scope or time period, state your objections and produce responsive documents for the scope or time period you believe is appropriate (including in your response a specific statement as to why you believe the scope or time period is inappropriate).
5. Unless otherwise specified, supply all annual data requested on a calendar-year basis; if any basis other than a calendar-year basis is used, such as to accommodate a fiscal-year basis, state as part of the response the nature and type of the basis so used.
6. If any of the following requests cannot be answered in full after exercising due diligence to secure the information, please so state and answer to the extent possible, specifying your inability to answer the remainder and stating whatever information you have concerning the unanswered portions. If your answer is qualified in any particular, set forth the details of such qualification.

7. You are to produce entire documents, including attachments, enclosures, cover letters memoranda and appendices.

8. If any information called for by a request is withheld on the basis of a claim of privilege, set forth the nature of the claim of privilege and the nature of the information for which privilege is claimed. Where the claimed privileged subject matter forms only part of the entire document involved, indicate that this is the case and whether you will produce the document with the privileged portions redacted, blocked out, or obliterated in a copy thereof.

9. Any document called for under these requests but not produced on the basis of a claim of privilege should be identified by the name of the people who prepared the document, the name of all recipients (including copy recipients), the date of the document, the nature of the document (e.g., e-mail, letter, etc.), and the general nature of the subject matter for which a privilege is claimed. All such documents shall be listed on a privilege log and the log shall be supplied at a time and place to be agreed upon by counsel.
